SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 10.

SQUEEZED BY A BIG ADDER .- Richard Eageleston, residing in the town of Vienna, Wis., had a thrilling experience with a large spotted adder, which would have proven fatal had not assistance arrived. Eagelston is an old man 80 years of age and paralyzed on one side. He was driving near his farm accompanied by his daughter, when he saw in front of him, coiled up in the roadway, a large spotted adder, which as the team advanced evinced no disposition to move aside. Eagelston was afraid to drive over it lest his horses might receive poisonous wounds, and therefore alighted to dive it away. As he approached the veno-mous creature it became, very angry, and darting forward viciously, in a twinkling entwined itself spirally around the old and almost the control of the control o helpless man. It darted its fangs into its victim's trousers leg, but fortunately did not reach the flesh. The terrified daughter, fearing to attack the monster herself, quickly hastened away and gave the alarm at the first farm house. Several men immediately ran to the rescue, and after a severe struggle, in which the snake fought desperately, succeeded in killing the creature and releasing the old man, whose face was purple from the constantly tightening folds of the monster. Besides aching bones from the terrible pressure to which they had been subjected, the old man sustained a severe nervous shock, but he will probably recover. The snake measured a trifle over eight feet in length and was fully three inches in diameter where its body reached the largest swell .- Shelbyville Democrat.

Especially to Women.

"Sweet is revenge, especially to women," said the gifted, but naughty, Lord Byron. Surely he was in bad humor when he wrote such words. But there are complaints that only women suffer, that are carrying numbers of them down to early graves. There is hope for those who suffer, no matter how sorely, or severely, in Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." Safe in its action it is a blessing, especially to women and to men, too, for when women suffer the household is askew.

ADVICE TO MOTHER

MRS. WINELOW'S PROTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for never-tailing success of minimum of motions their children. Buring the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the old. est in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the eighty-seven years of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become

The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world ; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa-

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with mer chants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs n and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who con sult its advertising columns before purchas ing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily--is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, ap-
